THE HOUSE COMMUTTEES.

We have elsewhere given the list of Chairmen of Committees announced by Speaker Randall last Monday. At present we have but little to remark upon them. One or two committees, however, may be given in detail as bearing more or less upon measures which have been less upon measures which have been laws of the little standard laws of the law of the l less upon measures which have been prominently before the people during the late canvass.

Means is a very important one as both of the existence of the havful Legis bearing upon the question of the revision of the tariff. The choice of a chairman for this committee is what might have been expected from a Pennsylvania high protectionist as Speaker, for Mr. Fernando Wood fought all last session against all houses schemes for reducing the tariff. The iana, both low tariff men, with reservations in favor of rice and sugar, the staple of their respective States, Phelps, of Connecticut, doubtful; Kelley, of Pennsylvania, an extreme tariff mun; Garfield, of Ohio, in favor of a revised tariff, Burchard, of Illinois, in favor of a revised tariff, B
